Das UFO als Ausnahme-situation

- Technologische Bedrohung
- Ontologische Bedrohung
- Metaphysische Bedrohung
- Ist der Grad einer Bedrohung nicht abschätzbar und potentiell unlimitiert, kann keine Dezision erfolgen und das Phänomen muss ignoriert werden.

Just before leaving his Defense Department, Pentagon official Luis Elizondo quietly arranged to secure the Pentagon's secret vaults: raw footage of UFO encounters.

The Pentagon's Secret Search for UFOs

Funded at the request of Harry Reid, the program probed a number of encounters military pilots had with aircraft they believed didn't operate like anything they had seen before.

Entwicklung nach 2010

- Dezember 2008: Douglas Kurth bringt bei seinem Vorstellungsgespräch bei BAASS mit dem Nimitz / Tic-Tac-Fall die Pilotensichtungen ins Spiel.
- Harry Reid verwendet im Sommer 2009 in Korrespondenz mit dem DoD das Kürzel »AATIP« als »Unclassified Nickname« für AAWSAP.
- AAWSAP erhält nach 2010 keine höhere Sicherheitseinstufung, und die Finanzierung läuft aus.
- Ein interner Personenkreis innerhalb des Pentagon konzentriert sich unter der Leitung von Luis Elizondo ohne Budget und offiziellen Auftrag unter dem Kürzel AATIP auf die Dokumentation von Pilotensichtungen.
- Luis Elizondo kündigt im Oktober 2017 seine Arbeit beim DoD und tritt als Whistleblower auf.
- Am 16. Dezember 2017 erscheinen die drei eingangs erwähnten Zeitungsartikel.
- Es kommt zu einer positiven Rückkoppelung zwischen Politik und Medien.

»Well, if you're building a trillion-dollar spaceship 300 years in the future, who's going to have the money and the institutional will to do that? It's the Mormons.« (Ty Franck)

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormonen)

»Anyone who's looked at Mormonism at all understands that we believe there are other worlds. It's one reason people looked askew at Mormonism for a long time. They'd ask, ›are these people crazy, talking about other worlds?‹ Well, Joseph Smith came up with this idea. I think there is no question there are other worlds, so yes, my religious beliefs are compatible 100 percent.«
